Who Funds Crime Stoppers?

Crime Stoppers does not receive any funding from state or federal sources. It is a community project totally supported by your donations of money, goods and services. Donations come from private sources, corporations, clubs, professional associations, retailers, civic and social groups, as well as individuals. All contributions are tax deductible.

How Does Crime Stoppers Work?

The facts about an unsolved crime are aired on radio and printed in area newspapers. Citizens are asked to call Crime Stoppers if they have any information regarding a crime. An easy to remember number 443-8181 was set up for Crime Stoppers. It is manned 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. All calls are kept in complete confidence.

Citizens supplying information which leads to an arrest and filing of charges may be eligible for a reward of up to $1,000, and may remain anonymous.

How Can You Become Involved?

Call Crime Stoppers any time you have information about an unsolved crime. You can support Crime Stoppers by donating either time, talents, goods, or services or funds. You can lend real support by becoming involved in the citizens' Board of Directors and helping in the direct administration of the program and determining rewards.
